

Roberts' Room News

for the week of

March 11, 2013

Dear Parents,

This week we will continue to prepare our presentation for the character education assembly. We hope you will be able to attend next Friday morning as we present about courage. We have really enjoyed preparing for the show.

This week, we will read fiction and nonfiction books about leprechauns and St. Patrick's Day.

In Open Court's Imagine It program, we will work with long o words with long o spelled oa and ow.

Spelling words for the week will be:

- |         |         |          |         |           |
|---------|---------|----------|---------|-----------|
| 1. tow  | 2. snow | 3. crow  | 4. blow | 5. mow    |
| 6. soap | 7. coal | 8. roast | 9. oat  | 10. croak |

Challenge words:

- |             |              |             |               |
|-------------|--------------|-------------|---------------|
| 11. rainbow | 12. sailboat | 13. oatmeal | 14. snowflake |
|-------------|--------------|-------------|---------------|

Spelling Homework:

Mon. Write your spelling words three times each using your best handwriting.

Tues. Write five sentences. Use at least one spelling word in each sentence.

Wed. Choose your own creative way to work with your spelling words.

Thurs. Study for your spelling test.

Specials for the week will be:

Mon. Art                      Tues. Media                      Wed. P.E.                      Thurs. Technology                      Fri. Music

This Friday, we would like to have a green tasting. If you are willing, please send in green items for our green tasting. Foods must be store bought. Examples of items we have had in the past include: green bagels, kiwi, cucumbers, grapes, olives, green chips, green jelly beans, etc.

Thank you in advance for your help with this.

We would also greatly appreciate any donation of baby wipes and name tag holders. We are almost completely out of both of these items.

Have a terrific week!

Sincerely,
Mary Presson Roberts
