for the weeks of November 13

and

November 19

Dear Parents,

This week, we will begin a spelling unit that will extend into next week since we have two short weeks. Spelling words for the weeks will be:

- |            |           |            |           |
|------------|-----------|------------|-----------|
| 1. breaded | 2. ended  | 3. lasted  | 4. packed |
| 5. buzzed  | 6. handed | 7. stamped | 8. helped |

Challenge Words:

- |            |            |                     |                  |
|------------|------------|---------------------|------------------|
| 9. Pilgrim | 10. Indian | 11. Native American | 12. Thanksgiving |
|------------|------------|---------------------|------------------|

Spelling Homework:

Tues. Write your spelling words neatly three times each.

Wed. Write five sentences. Use at least one spelling word in each sentence.

Thurs. Come up with your own creative way to work with your words. Write in your homework notebook to tell me how you worked with your words.

Mon. Study for your spelling test.

This week, in workshop, we will be learning factual information about turkeys, making words using the letters in the word harvest, and comparing and contrasting Thanksgiving of today to the first Thanksgiving.

We will continue to learn about the Earth, moon, and sun in science. We will read informational texts about the moon this week. We still need donations of Oreo cookies for our phases of the moon project planned for later this week. Thank you to those who have already sent in Oreo cookies for this project.

Also, please continue to send in your donations for Loaves and Fishes.

Attached to this email, please find a separate letter giving directions for an exciting, optional homework project. This project is always a favorite with my first graders and their families.

I hope you and your family have a wonderful Thanksgiving break!

Sincerely,

Mary Presson Roberts
